

Social Services and Health

Corporate Director of Social Services and Health - Iona Colvin

Salary - £98,748

Social Services and Health deliver a wide range of social services to the people of North Ayrshire as well as overseeing the provision of local authority housing.

This department works closely with partners such as the NHS, police, courts and prison services, as well as individuals and their families to provide support to some of the area's most vulnerable people.

Head of Children, Families and Criminal Justice – Sheena Gault

Salary - £75,285

The Council has a duty to support vulnerable young people and their families and delivers a wide range of services in this field. This role includes responsibility for:

- Assessment and Care Management of Vulnerable Children
- Residential and Day Care Provision for Children and Young People
- Fostering and Adoption Services
- Criminal Justice Social Work Services
- Family Support Services
- Welfare Rights
- Reception Services

Head of Finance and Performance – Lisbeth Raeside

Salary - £75,285

It is essential that social services staff are trained to the highest standards and that resources are managed appropriately to ensure that the Council provides the best social care possible. This role includes responsibility for:

- Finance Management
- Performance Management
- Risk Management
- Workforce Planning
- Systems
- Continuous Improvement Initiatives

Head of Housing & Community Care – Olga Clayton

Salary - £75,285

The Council provides support and care to adults in the community, ranging from young men and women with addictions to elderly people who require full time care at home. In addition, as the area's primary social landlord, the Council owns and manages almost 15,000 properties. This role includes responsibility for:

- Strategic Housing & Development
- Safer Communities
- Housing Management
- Supporting People
- Homelessness
- Assessment and Care Management for Vulnerable Adults
- Residential and Day Care Services for Older People and Adults
- Adult Services - Addiction, Independent Living, Learning Disability, Mental Health
- Care at Home Services
- Community Development