Notes.

1. The name and address of the owner is required as the procedure regulations require the owner to be informed if a completion certificate is rejected.
2. Where the address has been amended since the building warrant was granted, or where the submission covers only part of a building warrant (for example is for one house in a development of several dwellings that were subject to a single warrant) an address identifying the work covered by the submission must be supplied.
3. Where a certificate from an approved certifier of design includes details yet to be designed, the Notification of Finalisation of Details model form must be completed by the approved and approved body and forwarded to the verifier
4. Any applicant aggrieved by the decision of a verifier to reject a completion certificate may, by summary application made within 21 days of the date of the decision, appeal to the sheriff. If a verifier has not determined this submission within 14 days from the date of receipt by the verifier of the certificate, the submission is deemed rejected and an appeal may be made to the sheriff in the same way and subject to the same timescale

WARNING

This certificate does not permit the occupation or use of a building following construction or conversion. It is an offence to occupy or use such a building until a 'notice of acceptance of a completion certificate' is obtained except where this is done solely for the purposes of the construction or conversion of the building. Note that temporary permission may be obtainable from a verifier, and note that the restriction on occupation or use does not apply to alterations.

If any person submits a completion certificate containing a statement which that person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or recklessly submits a completion certificate containing a statement which is false or misleading in a material particular the person is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
