Understanding Domestic Abuse – Multi Agency – Delivered In-Person

The aim of this event is to raise awareness of domestic abuse, and how it affects the whole family unit. In addition, it allows professionals to examine their actions and practice when supporting those living with domestic abuse.

This event explores what domestic abuse is, and how someone may present and the behaviours of perpetrators. It also examines both criminal and civil law and how these can be used to protect and support.

These aims are achieved through co-delivery with North Ayrshire Women's Aid, and the event is a mix of facilitator input, videos, case studies, case reference, exercises, questions & answers.

Please note: the subject matter and lived experiences discussed within this event are distressing. Although great care will be taken during the event, to ensure those who are affected will be signposted to the appropriate support, please think carefully about attending, if you or someone you know, is a domestic abuse survivor. If you are unsure and would like to discuss it further with the facilitator, please contact:

Johannah Lamont
